Weinbeschreibung

Penteskoufi: a place rich in history, with its own microclimate. Here, in the Greek Peloponnese region, under the watchful eye of Acrocorinth's ancient castle, for five generations the Kontogiannis Family has lovingly tended its grapevines in the family's own vineyard. The indigenous grape varieties of Savatiano and Roditis are cultivated and harvested according to the principles of biodynamic agriculture, while the vinification process is certified organic according to ...
