Winery description

The family started to produce wine in the cellar 4 generations ago. Qvevris in use are age old and are in use since generations. Over decades the family, it is their traditions, only produce this wine in Qvevris in the same cellar. Currently there are 17 Qvevris in use with a total capacity of 10 tons. Typical production quantity is about 4.000 bottles per year. The wine produced is traditionally not filtered. The vineyard is located on a sun-endowed slop in southern direction of best climatic and pedological conditions, at an altitude of 300 m above th ...
