Weinbeschreibung

"Sansigot" is the name of the indigenous variety of wine. It's an old Croatian grape variety originally from the island of Susak, now grown in Vrbnik. This wine, with a medium alcohol content, is produced from grapes from the old vineyard on the western slopes as well as from the new one, situated on "Krasina", the land obtained by melioration of karst. We are one of two producers of Sansigot in the world. In the world exist only 2 ha of Sansigot ...
